

Find Funding Opportunities - Nursing

This page includes some of the many available sources of portable explanation of the various types of available funding. We encourage you to look into the availability of institution-based financial aid at the health professional school(s) you would like to attend.

A word to the wise: Don't be fleeced! There are a number of scholarship scams out there. The Federal Trade Commission offers some good advice on how to avoid falling prey to unscrupulous lenders.

NOTE: Ethnicity categories correspond to commonly-occurring terms used by funding sources. We encourage you to select the category/categories that most closely match your background, even if you cannot find the group with which you identify. Doing so will generate the largest number of funding sources for which you may qualify.
